Film Series

PARIS IS BURNING
Thursday, September 28
6:00 to 8:00 PM
Michael's at 489
25 Waverly Place, 1st Floor
A film by Jennie Livingston 1989. 71 minutes

The classic documentary film about New York City underground drag ball and the queen-black and Latinx "houses" that produce and perform them has launched a thousand queer theory issues.

THE JOURNEY (SANGKHORAM)
Tuesday, October 17
6:00 to 8:00 PM
19 University Place, Room 222
A film by Lijty J. Paupatalay 2004. 167 minutes
In Myanmar with English subtitles

Kiran and Delia lead impassioned lives until Kiran starts losing her sexual desire for her friend. Tradition dictates that the young woman must marry a man chosen for them by their parents, but their deepening affection for one another challenges this dictum.

Introduction by Swati Shah, Social and Cultural Analysis, NYU

NINE TO FIVE
Tuesday, November 7
6:00 to 8:00 PM
19 University Place, Room 222
A film by Colin Higgins
1980. 110 minutes

A feminist revenge story disguised as a comedic satire, this film depicts three female employees who turn the table on their sexist boss. A hugely satirical film, the film was also hugely topical, in its advocacy for equal pay for equal work and its exposure of the sexual harassment endured by many women.

Introduction by Ann Peledalgin, Performance Studies and Religious Studies, NYU
