

CO-ORGANIZED BY THE HEMISPHERIC INSTITUTE OF PERFORMANCE & POLITICS AND
THE CENTER FOR THE STUDY OF GENDER AND SEXUALITY

THE TRAFFIC IN POLICY

Religion, Sexuality, and the State

This one-day symposium will examine ways in which religious discourses and movements are crossing national borders and shaping policy debates, legislation, and public spheres in the Americas.

SPEAKERS

Faye Ginsburg (NYU), Marcial Godoy-Anativia (NYU), Carol Mason (Oklahoma State University), María Consuelo Mejía (Catholics for the Right to Decide, Mexico), Ann Pellegrini (NYU), Gabriela Rodríguez (AFLUENTES, Mexico), Diana Taylor (NYU), Juan Marco Vaggione (National University of Córdoba, Argentina), and David Harrington Watt (Temple University).

KEYNOTE

Roberto J. Blancarte (El Colegio de México)

SCHEDULE

- 10:00-10:30 Coffee
10:30-10:45 Welcome by Ann Pellegrini and Diana Taylor (NYU)
10:45-12:15 Fundamentalism in Motion
David Watt (Temple University)
Juan Vaggione (Universidad Nacional de Córdoba, Argentina)
Discussant: Marcial Godoy-Anativia (NYU)
- 12:15-1:15 Lunch
1:15-3:00 Social Movements and Reproductive Rights Policy
Carol Mason (Oklahoma State University)
Maria Consuelo Mejía (Catholics for the Right to Decide, Mexico)
Discussants: Faye Ginsburg (NYU) and Gabriela Rodríguez (AFLUENTES, Mexico)
- 3:00-4:00 Plenary Discussion led by Ann Pellegrini
4:00-4:15 Break
4:15-5:45 Keynote
Roberto Blancarte (Colegio de México)
"The Role of the Secular State in Sexual and Reproductive Rights in Latin America"
- 5:45-6:30 Reception

10-6
AM-PM

Friday, April 30, 2010
Hemispheric Institute
20 Cooper Square, 5th Floor
(free, photo id required)

HEMISPHERIC INSTITUTE
INSTITUTO HEMISFÉRICO DE PERFORMANCE & POLÍTICA

Co-organized by NYU's Hemispheric Institute of Performance & Politics and Center for the Study of Gender and Sexuality with funding by The Henry Luce Foundation as part of the Religion and Politics in the Americas Initiative.